WARNING - Under Florida Law (Chapter 773, Equine Activities), This Florida statute provides that an equine activity sponsor, an equine professional, or any other person shall not be liable for an injury to or the death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. Liability will not be limited by statute, however, where the equine professional or sponsor knew the tack or equipment was faulty, failed to make reasonable and prudent efforts to determine the ability of the participant to engage safely in the equine activity, owns or is otherwise in lawful possession of the land or facilities where the injury is attributable to a known dangerous latent condition, commits an act or omission that constitutes willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant, or intentionally injures the participant. Posting of warning signs alerting participants to the limitation of liability by law is also required.

IT IS HEREBY AGREED TO AS FOLLOWS:

A. DEFINITIONS

- The term/acronym "CCF" shall herein refer to the owners of Crying Coyote Farm, LLC or any of Crying Coyote Farm, Sparkleberry Ponies, its owners, agents, employees, officers, directors, representatives, assigns, members, premises owners, and others acting on Crying Coyote Farm's behalf.
- The term "OWNER" shall herein refer to the owner, trustee, part owner, or lessee of the animals which are contracted to be boarded under this agreement.
- The term "HORSE" shall herein refer to all equine species including but not limited to the animal listed below.

B. AGREEMENT PURPOSE and CONSIDERATION

At the commencement of this agreement, the OWNER intends for CCF to undertake the training and boarding of HORSE listed below under Clause C and to provide other incidental services according to terms and conditions set forth herein. OWNER agrees to pay to CCF the sum of the services chosen under Clause D for HORSE. Charges for boarding and other incidental services are due prior to boarding. For monthly boarding and training, payments are due on the 1st of the month. If commencement of boarding of HORSE occurs before the 1st of the month, fees will be prorated up to the end of the current month. For daily and weekly boarding, payments are due at the beginning of the boarding interval.

F. BOARDING OF HORSE

CCF shall board HORSE in accordance with generally accepted professional standards. CCF will exercise reasonable care for the protection of HORSE and shall board HORSE to the best of her ability. CCF will provide suitable facilities and care for HORSE in an adequate manner with feed being determined by CCF and will keep OWNER informed of any concerns in condition, performance or health of HORSE.

G. CCF'S RIGHT TO REFUSE SERVICES

CCF reserves the right to refuse the continuation of boarding and or training services of HORSE for any reason. In such event CCF shall give OWNER 7 DAYS written notice to remove HORSE from premises. After all fees have been paid in full this agreement is concluded.

H. VETERINARY CARE & COLIC SURGERY CANDIDACY

OWNER will pay any veterinary related expenses directly to VETERINARIAN. CCF shall board HORSE in accordance with generally accepted professional standards. CCF will exercise reasonable care for the protection of HORSE and shall board HORSE to the best of her ability. CCF will provide suitable facilities and care for HORSE in an adequate manner with feed being determined by CCF and will keep OWNER informed of any concerns in condition, performance or health of HORSE. CCF agrees to attempt to contact OWNER should CCF find veterinary treatment is needed for said HORSE, but, if CCF is unable to contact OWNER, CCF is then authorized to secure emergency veterinary, and farrier care required for the health and well-being of said HORSE. All costs of such care incurred shall be paid by OWNER within fifteen (15) days from the date OWNER receives notice thereof, or CCF is authorized, as OWNER's agent, to arrange direct billing to OWNER.

INITIAL PREFERENCE BELOW to indicate whether HORSE is a candidate for colic surgery or not:

_____ HORSE is a candidate for Colic Surgery

_____ HORSE is not a candidate for Colic Surgery

While HORSE is in custody of CCF, CCF shall not be liable for any sickness, disease, astray, theft, death or injury which may be suffered by the HORSE or any other cause of action whatsoever, arising out of or being connected in any way with the boarding or training of HORSE, except in the event of willful negligence on the part of CCF. This includes any personal injury or disability the OWNER, may receive on CCF's premises, while hauling or competing at show. The OWNER fully understands that CCF does not carry any insurance on HORSE or for any other purposes. Public liability, accidental injury, theft or equine mortality insurance and all risks connected are to be borne by the OWNER. The standard of care applicable to CCF is that of ordinary care of a prudent animal owner and not as a compensated bailee. In no event shall CCF be held liable to OWNER for equine death, injury or theft.

I. INHERENT RISKS AND ASSUMPTION OF RISK

All parties including OWNER and CCF agree to mutually hold one another harmless and release all claims, demands, causes of action, and legal liability, whether the same be known or unknown, anticipated or unanticipated, due to accident or ordinary negligence; and further agree that except in the event of gross negligence and willful and wanton misconduct, they shall not bring any claims, demands, legal actions and causes of action, against one another as stated above in this clause, for any economic and non-economic losses due to bodily injury, death, property damage, and injury to the animals, in relation to HORSE, premises, handling and training. CCF and OWNER acknowledge there are inherent risks associated with equine activities and assumes all risks associated.

J. MUTUAL RELEASE OF LIABILITY FOR INJURY

Acknowledging that horses are innately dangerous, OWNER and CCF agree to mutually hold one another harmless and release all claims, demands, causes of action, and legal liability, whether the same be known or unknown, anticipated or unanticipated, due to accident or ordinary negligence; and further agree that except in the event of gross negligence and willful and wanton misconduct, they shall not bring any claims, demands, legal actions and causes of action, against one another as stated above in this clause, for any economic and non-economic losses due to bodily injury, death, property damage, and injury to the animals, in relation to HORSE, premises, handling and training. CCF and OWNER and all persons interacting with HORSE will sign a general "releases of liability" that is kept at CCF (copy available).

K. OWNER RIGHT OF TERMINATION

Upon written notice to CCF the OWNER may terminate this agreement for any reason. OWNER is not entitled to a refund if termination is before the end of the service period (of one month). CCF shall be paid for all fees incurred up to the termination date or as long as HORSE is on premises, whichever is the later. After all fees have been paid in full this agreement is concluded.

L. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This contract represents the entire agreement between the parties. This contract is made and entered into in the county of Pasco in the state of Florida and shall be enforced and interpreted in accordance with the laws there. If any clause, phrases or word is in conflict with Florida State Law then that single part is null and void and the other portions hereof shall be deemed in full force and effect. Other legal agreements may supplement this contract.

SIGNERS STATEMENT OF AWARENESS: I/WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVE READ AND DO UNDERSTAND THE FOREGOING AGREEMENT, WARNINGS, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND RELEASE AGREEMENT. I/WE FURTHER ATTEST THAT ALL STATED FACTS ARE TRUE AND ACCURATE.
